

INN KEEPERS QUARTERS

This area was the Innkeeper and his family's private domain. Here is where Ben, Sarah, and their children might enjoy a light meal, spend some time as family, and sleep here. Ben and Sarah would have the bed, baby would be in the cradle, and the other children would sleep on the straw tics on the floor.

Today – First graders learn about Ben Patterson's life, his famous cousin – Daniel Boone, clothing of 1796, and the games that the Patterson children would enjoy.
